LIFEGUARDS

Both the pools and the ocean will be guarded during those times when the facilities are open for swimming. There is no swimming when a lifeguard is not present. Lifeguards will be distinguishable by the red suits and outerwear of their uniform. Members are asked not to distract a lifeguard from his/her duties unless their assistance is needed for professional reasons. Remember, guards are present at the club to keep swimmers safe; not for socializing, giving swimming instruction, or other activities not specifically set forth in their employee manual. All members are to pay strict attention to the guards and to follow their directions explicitly. A lifeguard's training is an on-going process at Driftwood. If you happen to be present when a drill is taking place, please do not interfere. If an incident has occurred and a guard asks that you go to the office and let the manager know what has happened, please do so without delay. Your help in such times will be greatly appreciated. The rescue equipment placed around the pools and near the ocean are not toys and should not be touched or handled by members. No one is allowed on lifeguard stands except for guards on duty.
